

ZAHP newsletter

May 28, 2021

News & Updates

ZAHP Featured in AZA's Connect!

It all began in 2005, with the looming threat of a different pandemic. While the H5N1 bird flu spread across Asia, the USDA approached the Lincoln Park Zoo in Chicago, Ill., to prepare the community for a possible zoonotic pandemic.

Read more
www.aza.org

ZAHP COVID-19 Impact Analysis Survey ZAHP is conducting a survey to collect more comprehensive data on the issues that zoos, aquariums, and wildlife facilities have experienced over the first year of response to COVID-19. We are looking for responses from facilities of all sizes and affiliations, and all responses will remain confidential.

Learn more about this survey and how your facility can participate here!

Reminder: ZAHP Capacity Building Grant Opportunity The 2021 ZAHP

Capacity Building Grant is now LIVE and accepting applications through June 21, 2021! This year's grant program will provide up to $15,000 for projects that would build capacity for response and/or recovery for the exotic animal industry. Learn more and apply here or contact hrandall@aza.org with any questions!

NOAA predicts another active Atlantic hurricane season NOAA's Climate Prediction Center is forecasting a 60% chance of an above-average hurricane season for 2021. Read more here.

Webinars & Events

June 2021 CDC Zoonoses & One Health (ZOHU) Call Wednesday, June 2 at 2 PM ET

The monthly CDC Zoonoses & One Health (ZOHU) Call for June will take place on Wednesday, June 2 from 2-3 PM ET. This call will touch on SARS-COV-2 in captive Asian small-clawed otters, the Alaskapox virus, and more.

Learn more and register here!

FEMA COVID-19 Operational Guidance Webinar Series Thursday, June 3 at 10 AM ET

FEMA is offering a series of webinars throughout the month of June to further educate people on pandemic operational guidance. They will host five webinars throughout the month of June, with the first taking place on Thursday, June 3 at 10 AM ET.

Learn more and register here!