August Zoonoses and One Health Updates (ZOHU) Call

Wednesday, August 3rd
2:00 - 3:00 PM ET

Learn more here!

Zoonoses & One Health Updates (ZOHU) Calls are one-hour monthly webinars offered by the CDC that provide timely education on zoonotic and infectious diseases, One Health approaches, and more.

August's call will cover the following topics: Investing in prevention: getting (and staying) ahead of antimicrobial resistance across One Health; what you need to know to prevent zoonoses associated with fancy rats, bearded dragons, backyard poultry, and other non-traditional pets; and updates on the tick bite meat allergy, Alpha-Gal Syndrome.
